I Lost It at the Movies is a 1965 book that serves as a compendium of movie reviews written by Pauline Kael, a film critic from The New Yorker, from 1954 to 1965. The book was published prior to Kael's long stint at The New Yorker. As a result, the pieces in the book are culled from radio broadcasts that she did while she was at KPFA, as well as numerous periodicals, including Moviegoer, the Massachusetts Review, Sight and Sound, Film Culture, Film Quarterly and Partisan Review. It contains her

Maybe I lost it.. yeah lost it
When I lost you I walk around I think about it
And all the things that we went through
The more I think about it It wasn't you.. that I lost
No no Was it the dream or just the notion Well I lost it.. when I lost you I had it.. maybe I lost it Yeah lost it.. when I lost you
I had it in the palm of my hand
And baby ...
