Glue one cover at a time, making sure that the new leather cover hangs over the edge of the paperback by 1/8" on all sides. Don't glue the spine or hinge sections (see diagram). If you glue these, the book won't open properly. When everything is glued, put weights on top of the closed book and let the glue dry for a long time (several hours). Use nice flat boards to avoid putting dents in the leather cover.

Leather Bindings
If you have leather bound books, dust them like you would any other book. If they're still dirty, the Alabama Department of Archives and History recommends using a small amount of saddle soap and a clean, lint-free cloth to clean the leather.
