Letter From a Birmingham Jail Figurative Language Analysis. "Just as the prophets of the eighth century B.C. left their villages and carried their 'thus saith the Lord' far beyond the boundaries of their home towns, and just as the Apostle Paul left his village of Tarsus and carried the gospel of Jesus Christ to the far corners of the Greco Roman world, so am I compelled to carry the gospel of freedom beyond my own home town.

Letter From a Birmingham Jail Figurative Language Analysis ...

Martin Luther King Jr. employed a lot of figurative language to convey his argument in his "Letter from Birmingham Jail.". He was able to convey his points through metaphors and similes. One example of this is when he makes a comment about "those who have not suffered unduly from the disease of segregation" (King). By referring to segregation as a disease, he redefines the term as a hindrance to society, giving it a negative connotation that fits his purpose for his argument.
