Vincent and the Doctor was the tenth episode of series 5 of Doctor Who.. It saw the Doctor befriend another famous figure in Vincent van Gogh and, quite darkly, explored the lead-up to his suicide.. In Doctor Who Confidential, it's said that this episode shows how the Doctor Who has heart unlike most science fiction stories, which leave out the compassion/humanity.

The Doctor explains that life is a mixture of bad and good, and while their brief encounter with Vincent couldn't undo all of the bad, they added some good to his life. The evidence is in Vincent's displayed works: the face no longer appears in The Church , and now Vase with 12 Sunflowers bears the inscription, "For Amy".
