This is the media and society text that critical scholars have been waiting for. - Professor Mark Andrejevic, Pomona College This book unpacks the role of the media in social, cultural and political contexts and encourages you to reflect on the power relationships that are formed as a result. Structured around the three cornerstones of media studies; production, content and participation, this is an ideal introduction to your studies in media, culture and society. The book: Evaluates recent developments in media production, industries and platforms brought about the emergence of interactive media technologies. Examines the shifting relationship between media production and consumption instigated by the rise of social and mobile media, recasting consumption as [participation]. Explores the construction of texts and meanings via media representations, consumer culture and popular culture, as well as the relationship between politics and public relations. Assesses the debates around the creative and cultural labour involved in meaning-making. Includes a companion website featuring exercise and discussion questions, links to relevant blogs and web material, lists of further reading and free access to key journal articles.

Bonnie S. Hirst is a woman of faith who has always believed that everything in life works out for the best. So, when her daughter, Lacey, is accused of a terrible crime, although Bonnie is devastated, she is also convinced that God will protect her family from harm. He always has, after all. But when her prayers are not answered and Lacey is sentenced to life in prison, Bonnie questions every aspect of her existence: her beliefs, her role as a mother, and the purpose behind the events that are tearing her family apart. As Bonnie and her family navigate the complicated labyrinth of the legal system, she struggles with the duality of presenting a façade of being okay on the outside and screaming for air on the inside. Finally, she is guided to ask for help;a concept previously foreign to her;and is rewarded with a bubble of friends who surround her and her family with love. Poignant, hopeful, and ultimately uplifting, Test of Faith is the story of one mother's spiritual journey of awareness;and her discovery that even when your life seems to have radically veered off course, there are always blessings to be found, if you can just keep your heart open enough to receive them.

Enhance your positive behavioral interventions and supports (PBIS) to do what's best for all students. With this equity-focused guide by Sharoky Hollie and Daniel Russell, Jr., you will discover a clear roadmap for aligning PBIS with cultural and linguistic responsiveness (CLR). Dive deep into why there is an urgent need for this alignment and then learn how to move forward to better serve your learners, especially those from historically underserved populations. Integrate culturally and linguistically responsive teaching with your PBIS strategies: Learn where PBIS falls short and why issues around discipline persist, especially with Black and Brown students. Gain clarity around culturally and linguistically responsive (CLR) teaching strategies in the classroom. Understand the difference between authentic and inauthentic CLR alignment to PBIS. Acquire practical steps, suggestions, and recommendations for being culturally and linguistically responsive in the classroom as well as across schools and districts. Give students the language, activities, and procedures to be situationally appropriate for school situations affected by PBIS in the classroom. Contents: About the Authors Introduction: The Ubiquity of Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports Part 1: The Why of Culturally and Linguistically Responsive PBIS Chapter 1: The Basics of a CLR-Managed Classroom Chapter 2: PBIS and Authentic Cultural and Linguistic Responsiveness Chapter 3: The Need for Authentic Culturally and Linguistically Responsive PBIS Part 2: The How of Culturally and Linguistically Responsive PBIS Chapter 4: CLR PBIS Alignment, Assessment, and Activation Chapter 5: Situationally Appropriate Opportunities Within PBIS Chapter 6: The Language of Situational Appropriateness Within PBIS Final Thoughts: A Change in Mindset to Enhance PBIS Appendix: Helpful Abbreviations for Cultural and Linguistic Responsiveness

Finally, a book that addresses not only the physical process of creating an inspirational, self-help, or personal development book, but the emotional and spiritual hurdles that block writers from following their dreams and finishing their books! "The Art of Inspiration" is no ordinary writing how-to or reference book, but rather an energetic companion guide for writers of all experience levels! It not only addresses the physical process for creating an inspirational, self-help, or personal development book, but actually teaches you to think, feel, and create like an inspired writer! "The Art of Inspiration" will walk you through the entire book creation process, from your first "divine download" to your final draft. Along the way, you'll learn how to: Fully identify your book's purpose and vision. Create a rock-solid outline and Information Delivery System that will support you through your entire writing process. Flow through your first draft with confidence and grace. Create compelling teaching stories that hook your readers. Refine your content in your second draft. Ask for and receive feedback you can actually integrate. Use tools like meditation, mindfulness, and self-inquiry to move through "stuck places" and help your authentic voice emerge with ease. Self-edit your manuscript to get it ready for submission. Choose a publishing option that works for you. ... But most importantly, you'll learn how to "ask the right questions" about your topic and how you relate to it, so that you can forge your own path to aligned writing, and bring forth a world-changing book that fully expresses your purpose and vision. Advance Praise "I've worked with Bryna since 2010, and when it comes to heart-centered, transformational editing, there's no one better. Her insights and authentic support will take your writing to the next level with love, and give you the confidence you need to share your work with the world." - Linda Joy, founder of "Aspire Magazine" & 7-time best-selling publisher at Inspired Living Publishing "The most important thing you need to write a life-changing book is a fiery-hot passion for your topic. The second most important thing you need is the guidance of this book. I wish I'd had "The Art of Inspiration" while writing my first books-it would have made the process so much easier!" - Boni Lonnsburry, conscious creation expert, award-winning, best-selling author of "Messages From Your Unseen Friends Vol. 1" and "The Map: To Our Responsive Universe, Where Dreams Really Do Come True!" YOU are an inspiration, and the world needs to hear your message! If you have been waiting for the right time to write the book that's in your heart, the time is now! So get inspired, and start writing the book that will change your world!
