West With The Night Beryl

Paula McClain's book Circling the Sun is a fictional memoir of Beryl Markham, and West with the Night is her actual memoir. I wondered at first why McClain would choose Markham of all people to fictionalize, when Markham had already spoken for herself in this memoir. I was almost irritated. After all, Markham is dead.

West with the Night is the memoir of amazing Beryl Markham. In case you did not know (I didn't), she was the first solo female to fly the Atlantic from East to West. Beryl was an English woman who grew up in Kenya together with his father on a farm. She was raised among Masai warriors, learned to hunt with a spear and to understand animals.

West with the Night by Beryl Markham - Goodreads

West With The Night by Beryl Markham is the 1942 memoir of Beryl Markham, a fearless and captivating woman who battled against the male dominated society of her time. It chronicles her life growing up in British East Africa, now Kenya, in the early 1900's. She writes of her early life, growing up more among the local tribe, the Kipsigis, than raised by her father.
